

Spirituous Liquors," under the persuasion that its provisions would materially conduce to the public good.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

By the Senate,

March 21, 1835.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates;

We respectfully ask your re consideration of the bill entitled, "A supplement to the act relating to Limited Partnerships," believing that the community is much interested in the passage of the provisions which it introduces, and which are calculated to bring into useful action pecuniary resources that are now comparatively inactive.

By order

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

On motion of Mr. Montgomery,

The bill entitled, An act authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money to purchase a fire apparatus, and for the improvement of Belle Air, in Harford county,

Was read the third time, passed, and sent to the House of Delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favor of Benjamin Seegar and Isaac Hines,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

Mr. Morris, from the committee on finance, to which said resolution was referred, reported favorably thereon;

It was read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

The bill entitled, A supplement to the act entitled, an act to facilitate the recovery of debts due from the several banks of this State, and to compel the said banks to pay specie for their notes or forfeit their charters, passed at December session, 1818, chapter 177,

Was taken up for consideration.

The amendment, heretofore reported, was read and assented to.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Sappington being in the chair;
